"The idea is that the city that opens the same book closes it in greater harmony." —Mary McGrory, The Washington Post, March 17, 2002
Hello and welcome to the Farmers Branch Manske Library. Please join us for the third Farmers Branch Reads beginning September 6. The theme of this year's community-wide reading initiative is "Other Worlds," so we have chosen books that explore the unusual and the extraordinary.

For the adult book, we have chosen Mr. Penumbra's 24-Hour Bookstore. Clay finds a job in an old bookstore, only to discover that his main customers are trying to crack the code to eternal life via a 500-year-old secret society. It's an entertaining book that combines the love of reading with an age-old mystery. The award-winning novella Coraline by Neil Gaiman has been chosen for young adult readers. The children's books include a picture book, The Midnight Library by Kazuno Kohara, and Escape from Mr. Lemoncello's Library by Chris Grabenstein for older children.
Just as we explore "other worlds," in literature, we will explore what film has to offer, as well. The annual Outdoor Movie Series in September will include E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial, National Treasure and The Amazing Spider-Man 2. Beyond movies, the Library is offering many programs to tie into the chosen Farmers Branch Reads titles and the exploration of other worlds. You can join us for Afternoon Tea at Downton Abbey, try to escape Mr. Lemoncello's library, enjoy a lecture on secret societies, or play a round of life-size literary Clue. Culminating in a carnivale on November 8, where we will have book discussions, play games and celebrate "other worlds."
